

INVITATION TO AN UNVEILING

POETS' PATHWAY

LE PARCOURS DES POÈTES

The poem, Ottawa, by Benjamin Sulte, Ottawa's famous Francophone historian, poet and journalist of the nineteenth century will be unveiled at Riverain Park on the beautiful Rideau River in Vanier (follow Queen Mary Street, go west from the Vanier Parkway).
Monday October 28th at 2:00 pm.

Speakers include historian Jean Yves Pelletier, poet Michel Thérien, Rideau Vanier Councillor Mathieu Fleury and poet and historian Steven Artelle.

The unveiling will be followed by an informal reception.

Hoping to see you there!

www.poetspathway.ca

Benjamin Sulte!
Poet & Journalist

October 28th 2013
2:00 pm

Directions:
Vanier Pkwy, West
on Queen Mary,
West on Prindiville

See map below

Reception to Follow

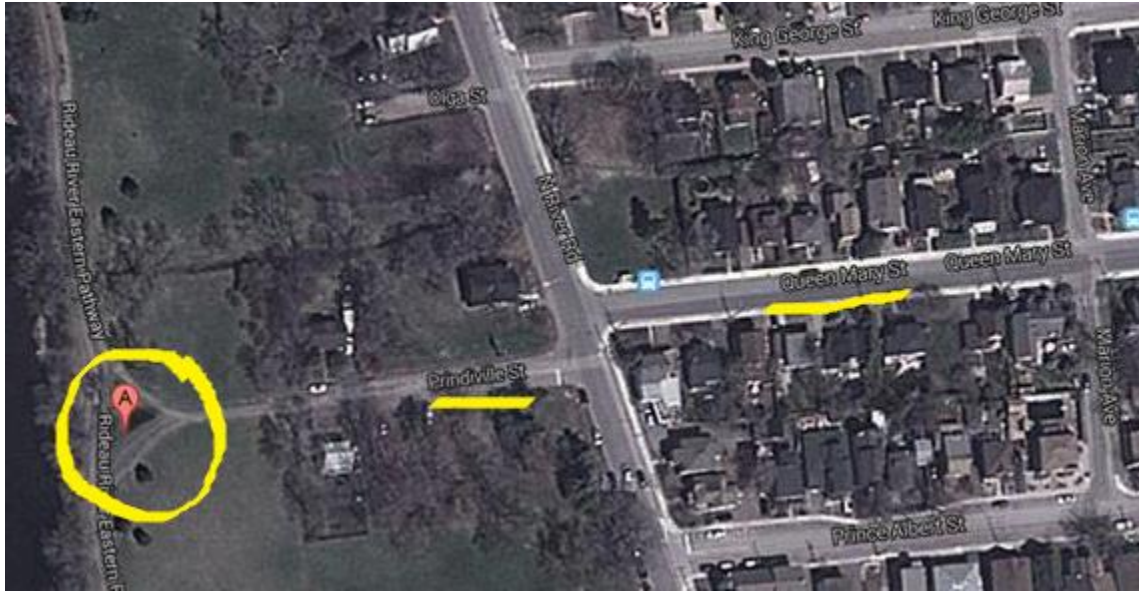

Jean Yves Pelletier
Michel Thérien
Councillor Mathieu Fleury
and Adele Keyes

Map for Unveiling

The red balloon marks the spot!

Queen Mary and Prindiville Streets are underlined in yellow.

Street parking only.

The Vanier Parkway is on the East (right)