May, 2014

A message from the Poets' Pathway:

Hi!

The Rideau Trail Association is leading three walks of the Poets' Pathway, to encompass the whole route.

This weekend: Friday May 16, Saturday May 17, Sunday, May 18.

Come out and join Bruce as he leads these walks through some of Ottawa's loveliest lands, and reads the poems on the plaques.

From the Rideau Trails Association's website,

http://www.rideautrail.org/ottawa.html

Friday, May 16

Poet's Pathway in Manageable Chunks #1

Level 2, 15 km, approx. 4 hr. 30 min. Follow the Poet's Pathway as it winds through the Greenbelt. Bring a snack and bus fare. Meet at the Poet's Plaque near the stone pier in Britannia Park at 4 pm.

Saturday, May 17

Poet's Pathway #2.

Level 2, 15 km, approx. 4 hr., 30 min. Bring a snack and bus fare. Meet at Hunt Club/Riverside Community Centre at the corner of Paul Anka and McCarthy at 10 am.

Sunday, May 18

Poet's Pathway #3.

Level 2, 15 km, approx. 4 hr. Bring a snack and bus fare. Meet at Hurdman Transit Station at 10 am.