The Poets' Pathway is so happy to invite you to the unveiling of our thirteenth plaque on the Pathway, the poignant "A Fragment" by D'Arcy McGee, Father of Confederation, poet, politician, orator, editor. He was assassinated on Sparks Street, in 1868, days before his forty-second birthday.

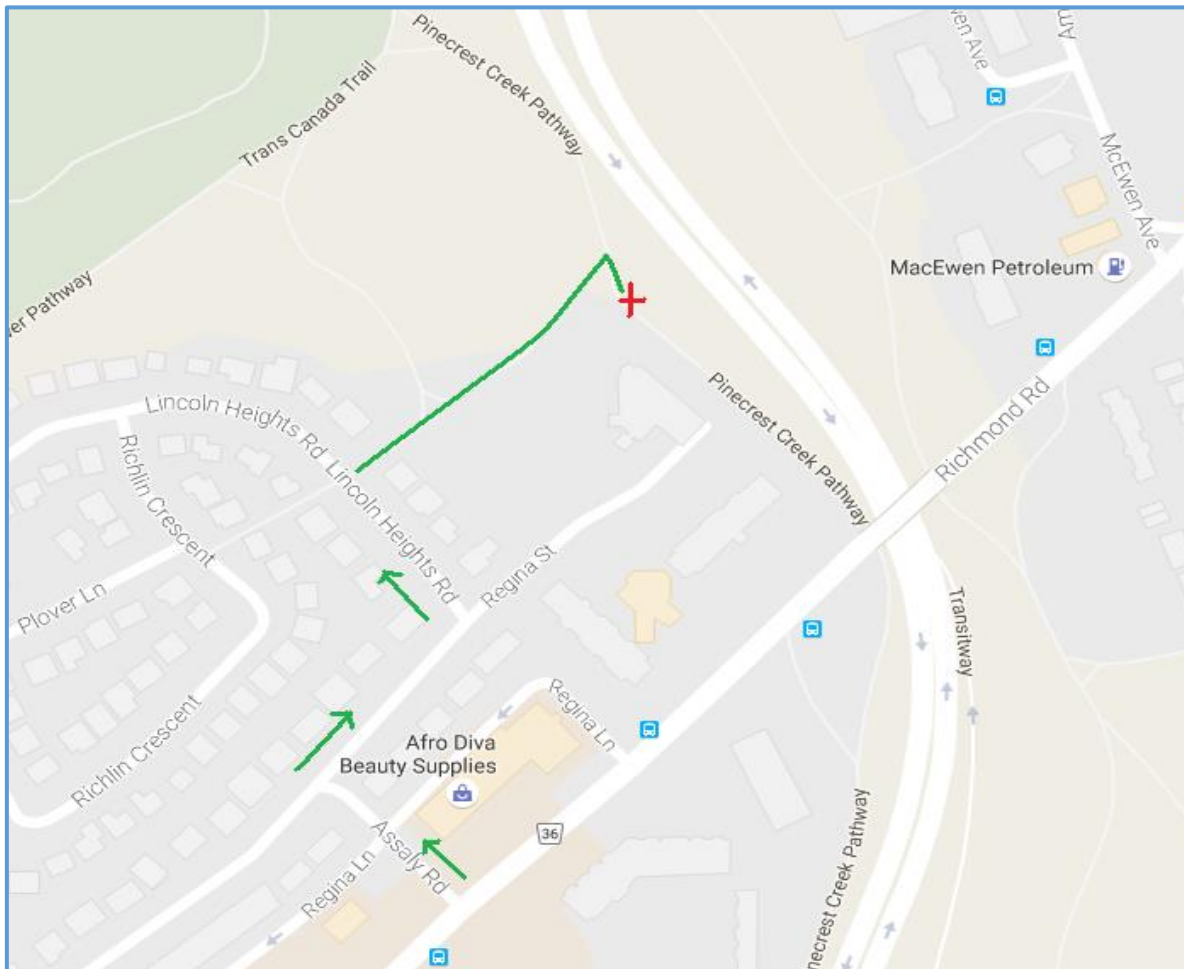

Our guests include Mark Taylor, Councillor and Deputy Mayor; Padraig Finlay, docu-drama creator, actor, historian; Daniel Boland, teacher, poet, Detours, 2014, Toward the Chrysalis, 2015; and Julia Goodman, President, Lincoln Heights-Parkway Community Association.

The ceremony is about 30 minutes in length.

We hope you can make it!

We invite you to join us afterwards for pizza at Biagio's Italian Kitchen, 1394 Richmond, at Croydon.
